6	SCORING
6.1	There will be a minimum of three heats and an A and/or B and/or C final for all competitors or
6.1.1	Timed qualifying practice, pre final and final for each class. In such an event the championship points will remain unchanged on the final finishing positions in the A and B finals. In the case of any ties with drivers setting identical fastest lap times in timed qualification, the driver setting the quickest 2nd fastest lap will take the higher grid position, if second fastest lap times are identical then 3rd fastest lap is considered and so forth. The timed practice results will decide the grid positions for the Pre Final, each drivers quickest lap to count. The quickest lap takes pole position, in the case of a tie the second quickest lap to resolve the tie and then the third lap etc. If there is more than one session and the fastest time achieved in the slowest session is not more than 101% of the fastest time achieved in the faster session, then the classification will be determined by the order of the fastest times achieved by each driver. If there is more than one session and the fastest time achieved in the slowest session is more than 101% of the fastest time achieved in the fastest session (fastest time overall), 2nd place goes to the fastest in the second fastest session, 3rd to the fastest in the third session if there is one or to the second fastest in the fastest session and so on, to determined the combined results order. Where classes exceed 36 entries, the drivers will be split by computer ballot into two separate timed qualifying sessions. Following both qualifying sessions, drivers will be ranked into two groups (group A and group B) with all drivers from group A competing in Pre Final A and drivers in group B competing in Pre Final B. the top 16 drivers from each Pre Final will progress directly to the A Final with the remainder qualifying for the B Final, priority for grid positions will be decided on Timed Qualifying position. The top 4 drivers from the B Final will take up the last 4 places on the A Final Grid.

6.1.1.1	Or timed qualifying 2 heats and final(s) Timed qualifying will decide the grid positions for the two heats, in the case of any ties with drivers setting identical fastest lap times in timed qualification, the driver setting the quickest 2nd fastest lap will take the higher grid position, if 2nd fastest lap times are identical, then 3rd fastest lap time will be considered and so forth. Points scored in the 2 heats will determine grid positions for the final(s), with the lowest score on pole. In the event of a tie the higher grid position will be decided from the classification of timed qualifying. To determined grid positions where there is more than one timed qualifying session and the fastest time achieved in the slowest session is not more than 101% of the fastest time achieved in the faster session, then the classification will be determined by the order of the fastest times achieved by each driver. If there is more than one session and the faster time achieved I the slowest session is more than 101% of the fastest time achieved in the fastest session (fastest time overall), 2nd place goes to the fastest in the second fastest session, 3rd to the fastest session if there is one or to the 2nd fastest in the fastest session and so on to determine the combined results order.
6.2	The heat points for calculating Final grid positions are as follows: 1st = 0 pts 2nd = 2 pts 3rd = 3 pts 4th =4 pts etc increasing by 1 point per place. A driver who fails to start a heat will receive 1 point more than the number of drivers that started the heat. A driver who fails to finish a heat will receive grid points according to the number of laps completed. A driver who is disqualified from a heat will receive 1 point more than the number of drivers who started the heat.
6.3	If there is more than a full grid of 36 for an A final, then automatic qualification for the A Final will be reduced to make a B final with a minimum of 6 drivers. The same principal will apply to a C final. The first 4 finishers in the C Final will go through to the B Final, the first 4 finishers in the B Final will go through to the A Final. To resolve a tie in heat points, the following will apply; The driver with the lowest points scored in their first heat will take the higher grid position. If still tied, then the driver with the lowest points score in their second heat will take the higher grid position. If still tied, then the driver with the fastest lap, from any heat, will take the higher grid position.
6.4	For information regarding Championship Points please refer to the Championship Regulations.
