6	SCORING
6.1	There will be a minimum of three heats and an A and/or B and/or C final for all competitors or
6.1.1	Timed qualifying practice, pre final and final for each class. In such an event the championship points will remain unchanged on the final finishing positions in the A and B finals. In the case of any ties with drivers setting identical fastest lap times in timed qualification, the driver setting the quickest 2 nd fastest lap will take the higher grid position, if second
J.	fastest lap times are identical then 3 rd fastest lap is considered and so forth. The timed practice results will decide the grid positions for the Pre Final, each drivers quickest lap to count.
	The quickest lap takes pole position, in the case of a tie the second quickest lap to resolve the tie and then the third lap etc.
	Where entry numbers require a class to be split over 2 qualification sessions (more than 36 entries) the fastest time in the fastest group will take the higher ranking in the Qualification Classification. The fastest time in the slower session will take 2 nd place in the Qualification Classification. The second fastest time in the faster group will take 3 rd place in the Qualification Classification. The second fastest time in the slower group will take 4 th place in the Qualification Classification and so on.
	If Timed Qualifying times are identical then higher position will be decided on 2nd fastest time of each driver, if still tied 3rd fastest time etc
	Where classes exceed 36 entries, the drivers will be split by computer ballot into two separate timed qualifying sessions.
	Following both qualifying sessions, drivers will be ranked into two groups (group A and group B) with all drivers from group A competing in Pre Final A and drivers in group B competing in Pre Final B. the top 16 drivers from each Pre Final will progress directly to the A Final with the remainder qualifying for the B Final, priority for grid positions will be decided on Timed Qualifying position. The top 4 drivers from the B Final will take up the last 4 places on the A Final Grid.
 	1

If Timed Qualifying times are identical then higher position will be decided on 2nd fastest time of each driver, if still tied 3rd fastest time etc  The heat points for calculating Final grid positions are as follows: 1st = 0 pts 2nd = 2 pts 3rd = 3 pts 4th = 4 pts etc increasing by 1 point per place.  A driver who fails to start a heat will receive 1 point more than the number of drivers that started the heat.  A driver who fails to finish a heat will receive 1 point more than the number of laps completed.  A driver who fails to finish a heat will receive 1 point more than the number of laps completed.  A driver who is disqualified from a heat will receive 1 point more than the number of drivers who started the heat.  If there is more than a full grid of 36 for an A final, then automatic qualification for the A Final will be reduced to make a B final with a minimum of 6 drivers. The same principal will apply to a C final.  The first 4 finishers in the C Final will go through to the B Final, the first 4 finishers in the B Final will go through to the A Final. To resolve a tie in heat points, the following will apply:  The driver with the higher ranking in Timed Qualification will take the higher grid space.  For information about Championship Points, please refer to the Championship Regulations but NB any driver who is disqualified from a meeting will receive 0 Championship points and will be unable to drop that round.  DRIVING STANDARDS  The As second penalty (drive through) may be imposed after the race subject to the following:  C.2.3.2.1.
